BLAW RCM Report November 16, 2017

Region and RSO met Sunday in Carson City at 11AM. Many topics were discussed at RSO they were:

1. An ad hoc committee to discuss the feasibility of a Regional Service Office to be staffed and carry literature and merchandise for immediate availability. Curtis D. from Reno will head it up and I volunteered to be on the committee. This was prompted by our motion and had huge "support" to begin research.
2. Convention Finals are not out yet we are still waiting for information from the Convention Treasurer.
3. Gratitude Dinner set to go in Carson City Saturday.
4. Elections were held body remains the same Chair Jim G. James (me) Vice Chair and Karen R. Secretary-Treasurer.

At RSC the reports are included and many Areas have New Year's Eve events including RNA (Fallon Never Alone), South Lake, Bishop, and us (yay first time in 4 years) all of the events are in the booklet.

Convention meets 11am Roundtable Pizza on Keystone in Reno. The preparation to elect a new body starts after the closeout meeting this Sunday.

All Areas are growing and North Lake is attempting to start PR and H&I and have reached out for support.

The information for Western Service Learning Days will be shared at the Pancake Breakfast December 10th at 2990 Rock Blvd. in Sparks please attend there will be handouts and presenters. Please attend.

If you have any questions on anything in your booklet please feel free to ask me and or Wallace and we will stay and answer your questions or call me. GSR's use the booklets as a tool for your NA announcements as most events are in them in chronological order. I am requesting reimbursement for 1500 fliers for Activities and PR/H&I 50 world maps and 35 RCM Report Booklets with and $11 receipt for 11x17 paper of $41.

In Loving Service

James and Wallace

BLAW RCM Report

The Area continues to see an upswing in newcomers and new members with a year or more becoming Trusted Servants. This speaks to the growth in the Fellowship and many younger addicts joining and staying clean one day at a time.

Many attended their first NA Convention for the first time and it was exciting to see so many newcomers on stage for the first time.

The BLAW has Marathon Meetings for Thanksgiving and Christmas and a New Year's Eve Event with Pat from Carson as our speaker.

December 10th we have our H&I and Public Relations Pancake Breakfast and this year we have Speakers sharing their experience and presenting the information from Western Service Learning Days.

We are in the process of re-opening the Herlong Prison H&I meeting. Wallace and Area Chair Ray have been traveling to the Susanville Prison Camp weekly carrying the message in. the inmates have been quite receptive.

North Lake Tahoe Trusted Servants attended the workshop and asked for some help with Drug Courts and we mentioned we went as far as Winnemucca and would be more than happy to help.

Flyers are being distributed for all these events please attend and join us. We would love to spend our holiday season sharing our recovery with you.

The Area is sound financially and we are starting the discussions on how to spend our income prudently. The IP Money Matters was copied and handed out to every GSR at the last meeting.

Please help
